FROM FATHER RANING

Transfiguration in children

- If a child lives with criticism, he learns to condemn.
- If a child lives with hostility, he learns to fight.
- If a child lives with ridicule, he learns to be shy.
- If a child lives with shame, he learns to feel guilty.
- If a child lives with tolerance, he learns to be patient.

If a child lives with encouragement, he learns confidence.

If a child lives with praise, he learns to appreciate.

If a child lives with fairness, he learns justice.

If a child lives with security, he learns to have faith.

If a child lives with approval, he learns to like himself.

If a child lives with acceptance and friendship, he learns to find love in the world.

Invitation from

ST PAUL THE APOSTLE PARISH

We The Men of St Joseph are a small group of family men who gather here each fortnight to enlighten the men of our Parish with the true meaning of being a father figure in today's turbulent times and, as a group, further our Catholic beliefs through faith and prayer.

Remember:

If you are not the role model who is?

Being united makes us ever stronger as protectors of our families and the faith. Please make an effort to attend our meetings. Our next meeting at Winston Hills is Thursday 10 August. Meetings at Winston Hills are every second Thursday thereafter.

MOMENTS OF MERCY

Do not become discouraged by ingratitude. Do not examine with curiosity the roads down which I lead you. When boredom and discouragement beat against your heart, run away from yourself and hide in My Heart. Do not fear struggle; courage itself often intimidates temptations, and they dare not attack us. (Diary 1760)
