From Father Raning

A high-powered executive was waiting to board an airplane when suddenly without warning, his flight was cancelled. He was furious, so he shoved his way to the head of the ticket line and demanded a first-class seat on the very next flight. The agent explained courteously that they'd be happy to help, but he'd just have to stand in line and wait his turn.

"Young man, do you have any idea who I am?" shouted the man.

The agent looked him up and down carefully, then picked up his microphone and said, "Attention, please. There's a gentleman at the ticket counter who doesn't know who he is. If anyone can identify him, please step forward."

A student once asked Socrates (Greek philosopher): "Sir, you ask everyone who want to become your student to look into the pond and tell you what he sees. Why is it so?"

Socrates replied: "It is quite simple. One who sees the fish swimming around, I accept him. Others who see their own reflection are in love with their ego. I have no use for them."

First reading: Elisha has to leave those he loves to become a prophet.
What have I had to leave behind lately to follow Christ?

Second reading: St. Paul claims that freedom is service to others in love.
How has my service to others made me more free?

Gospel: Jesus says that he has nowhere to rest.
How might I invite Jesus to come and rest in me?

Catholic Foundation Thank you

Bishop Vincent, Parramatta Catholic Foundation, and the Holy Spirit Seminary thank you for your kind-hearted and support for the recent Bishops Good Shepherd appeal. Monies raised will provide education, formation and accommodation of our seminarians, successfully transforming them into compassionate, loyal priests who will help ensure the future of our Church. For anyone who hasn't had a chance to donate, there are still envelopes at the back of the church. We ask you to continue to pray for the Diocesan ministries supported by the Parramatta Catholic Foundation, including the Holy Spirit Seminary and the young men who have answered God's call.
