From Father Raining

Once upon a time, a man took his new hunting dog on a trial hunt. After a while, he managed to shoot a duck and it fell into the lake. The dog walked on the water, picked up the duck and brought it to his master. The man was stunned. He didn't know what to think. He shot another duck and again it fell into the lake and, again, the dog walked on the water and brought it back to him. What a fantastic dog – he can walk on water and get nothing but his paws wet.

The next day he asked his neighbour to go hunting with him so that he could show off his hunting dog, but he didn't tell his neighbour anything about the dog's ability to walk on water. As on the previous day, he shot a duck and it fell into the lake. The dog walked on the water and got it. His neighbour didn't say a word. Several more ducks were shot that day and each time the dog walked over the water to retrieve them and each time the neighbour said nothing and neither did the owner of the dog. Finally, unable to contain himself any longer, the owner asked his neighbour, "Have you noticed anything strange, anything different about my dog?" "Yes," replied the neighbour, "Your dog doesn't know how to swim."

The neighbour missed the point completely. He couldn't see the wonder of a dog that could walk on water; he could only see that the dog didn't do what other hunting dogs had to do to retrieve ducks – that is to swim. The disciple, Peter, was good at missing the point at the theophany of Transfiguration as is clear from his declaration: "I will make three tents here, one for you, one for Moses and one for Elijah."

First Reading: Abraham gave up much in order to do as the Lord commanded.
What must I give up this Lent to let God take up more space in my life?

Second Reading: St. Paul reminds us that we are called to a holy life.
How can I respond more generously to this call now?

Gospel: At the transfiguration, God approved Jesus and his mission.
With what about me and my ministry would God be most pleased?

The Bishop's Good Samaritan Appeal

21st & 22nd March

We all experience difficult times in our lives that are distressing, especially if they arise from illness or the loss of our loved ones. Finding the strength, hope and faith we need to get through dark times, immense grief and suffering, can be challenging.

Pope Francis has called us to be an oasis for the weary and troubled, a refuge for the burdened, the field hospital which heals the wounded and strengthens the weak. Just as the Good Samaritan came to the aid of the man left half-dead by the side of the road and gave him comfort and a place to recover, CatholicCare chaplains help people in their time of need.

We can all be Good Samaritans by supporting our chaplains as disciples of Jesus Christ, providing spiritual, emotional and sacramental support to the sick and the dying, the elderly and those in need. Your compassionate gift and prayers today will support CatholicCare chaplains to carry on the work of Jesus in the footsteps of the Good Samaritan.

Thank you for accompanying them on their journey. Bishop Vincent Long OFM Conv
