From Father Raning

Andrew Carnegie, the multimillionaire, left $1 million for one of his relatives, who in return cursed Carnegie thoroughly because he had left $365 million to public charities and had cut them off with one million.

Samuel Leibowitz, criminal lawyer and judge, saved 78 men from the electric chair. Not one of them ever bothered to thank him.

Many years ago, as the story is told, a devout king was disturbed by the ingratitude of his royal court. He prepared a large banquet for them. When the king and his royal guests were seated, a beggar shuffled into the hall, sat down at the king's table, and gorged himself with food. Without saying a word, the beggar then left the room.

The guests were furious and asked permission to seize the tramp and tear him limb from limb for his ingratitude. The king replied, "That beggar has done only once to an earthly king what each of you does three times each day to God. You sit there at the table and eat until you are satisfied. Then you walk away without recognising God, or expressing one word of thanks to Him."

The parable in today's gospel is about the gross ingratitude of God's chosen people who persecuted and killed all the prophets sent to them by God to correct them and finally crucified the much awaited Messiah.

First reading: God tends to us like a vineyard owner working to make sure that he will have a good crop.

How have I experienced God's workings in me this week?

Second reading: Paul urges us to let go of our anxieties and turn in prayer to God.

What anxieties make it hard for me to pray right now?

Gospel: God expects much from us who have been entrusted with God's gifts.

What can I do today to become a more trusted steward of God's gifts?

Communion congratulations and thanks

To the children who received the Eucharist for the first time in September. To their parents thanks for preparing them for this sacrament. A special thank you to the following people who gave up their time to prepare the children each Sunday afternoon and rostered themselves to attend the Communion Masses:

Jenny DiMarzo, Pauline Knowler, Mary Naim, Michelle Thompson, Charmain Floody, Melissa Ellis

Thank you also to Jim Martin and Adam Carlow who have worked wonders with the Children

A very special thank you to Fr Raning and Fr Marcus for making the Communion Masses special for the children and to Diane Samson who managed the booking in process for all the Communion Masses.

I ask that as a parish we continue to pray for these children as they continue on their Sacramental journey.

Sandra Sheehan Sacramental Coordinator

COVID-19 restrictions

Restrictions continue and please note and adhere to the following:

- Restriction is 100 people at each Mass. Bookings are essential for all weekend masses.
- When attending any mass you will need to record your name and phone number as you enter
- Social distancing restrictions are in place and are to be respected
- Where there is a "do not sit here" sign, that applies to the entire pew
- Members of the same family and/or household are permitted to sit together
- Holy Communion can only be distributed and received on the hand (Ordinary Form of Latin Rite). Please lower your masks under your chin, prior to receiving Communion; the Host must be consumed immediately after you have received, whilst still at the Altar
- When going to Communion please distance yourself from the person in front of you
- No singing at masses, this includes the "Alleluia"
- There is no procession of gifts or passing of collection plates

The entire month of October is dedicated to the Holy Rosary

The month of October is a time to commit to praying the Rosary everyday. The Rosary will bring great peace and holiness to your life. It is a powerful instrument for conversion. The Rosary is the best method of honouring Mary. It protects the Church from false teachings and keeps her safe from the attacks of the enemy.
