From Father Raning

At a year-end faculty meeting, an elementary school principal said to his teachers: "Let's all write out some New Year's Resolutions about how we can be better teachers. I'll put them on the staff bulletin board. In that way, we can be mutually supportive in our efforts to keep those resolutions." The teachers agreed. When the resolutions were posted, the teachers all crowded around the bulletin board to read them.

One of the young teachers in the group suddenly went into a temper tantrum. She said, "He didn't put up my resolution. It was one of the first ones in. He doesn't care about me. That just shows what it's like around here." On-and-on she ranted and raved. The principal overheard the commotion and he was terribly embarrassed because he hadn't meant to exclude the young teacher's resolution. He quickly rummaged through the papers on his desk and found it. Then he went immediately to the bulletin board and tacked it up. The resolution read: "I resolve not to let little things upset me anymore." Resolution, but no commitment!

It takes more than a written resolution or an external show of piety to reveal the true presence of the Holy Spirit within us. There is a necessary ingredient called commitment. Jesus sends the Holy Spirit to reinforce, strengthen, and enlighten our commitment to His ministry and His way of life.

First Reading: The earliest Christian community was distinguished by its sharing of goods.
What sharing of my goods might I undertake this week?

Second Reading: John knows that love can make obedience much easier.
How has love made keeping God's commandments easier at times for me?

Gospel: Thomas wanted proof rather than relying on the word of the other disciples.
When has it been difficult for me to trust the word of others about Jesus?

A Special Thank you!

We thank God that as a parish we were able to celebrate our Holy Week and Easter ceremonies with strong attendances! What a difference a year makes.

We acknowledge there was significant demand for some services and appreciate your understanding and patience whilst we temporarily introduced advance bookings.

At this stage bookings are no longer required for any of our Liturgical services.

Thank you to everyone who contributed to make our Easter ceremonies a success!

Moments of Mercy

O my Jesus, my only hope, thank You for the book which You have opened before my soul's eyes. That book is Your Passion which You underwent for love of me. It is from this book that I have learned how to love God and souls. In this book there are found for us inexhaustible treasures.—Diary, 304

Important update on Ministries in our Parish

Readers and Commentators: We are in the process of finalising rosters for the coming months and if you have not already contacted the office with your availability please do so as soon as possible so that we can circulate the rosters.

Altar Servers: We will soon commence reintroducing Altar Servers to our weekend Masses. It has indeed been a long wait for our children and we appreciate and acknowledge their patience and that of their families! For existing Altar Servers, their families will be contacted in early April to identify their availability to serve, etc. At this stage we are intending to recruit new Altar Servers around September which allows for the completion of the next round of First Holy Communion. In the meantime if you have any queries about the Altar Server Ministry please contact the parish office.
