From Father Raining

An old man is talking to the family doctor. "Doctor, I think my wife's going deaf." The doctor answers, "Well, here's something you can try on her to test her hearing. Stand some distance away from her without facing her and ask her a question. If she doesn't answer, move a little closer and ask again. Keep repeating this until she answers. Then you'll be able to tell just how hard of hearing she really is."

The man goes home and tries it out. He walks in the door and asks, "Honey, what's for dinner?" He doesn't hear an answer, so he moves closer to her. "Honey, what's for dinner?" Still he gets no answer. He repeats this several times, until he's standing just one foot away from her. Finally, she answers, "For the eleventh time, I said we're having meat loaf!"

First Reading: God has created us for life and shared divine life with us.
When have I most felt God's life-giving power at work in me?

Second Reading: Paul urges us to imitate the way Christ shared his riches with us and share our own riches with those in need.
What I might I do this week to help meet someone else's needs?

Gospel: Jesus shows great concern for the sick child and helps her.
What might I do this week to help a child be more healthy or free?

Moments of Mercy

Now I understand Your mercy, which protects me, and like a brilliant star, leads me into the home of my Father, protecting me from the horrors of hell that I have deserved, not once, but a thousand times. O Lord, eternity will hardly suffice for me to give due praise to Your unfathomable mercy and Your compassion for me. Jesus, I trust in you - Diary, 1486

Peter's Pence Appeal

The Peter's Pence Appeal is the Holy Father's annual appeal raising funds for the neediest parts of the Catholic Church around the world. The Peter's Pence Office tells us that donations to assist the needy "Is an offering that each member of the faithful decides to give to the Pope so that he can provide for the needs of the entire Church, especially in those places where the Church experiences greater difficulties." A third collection will be taken up this weekend in support of this appeal. Thankyou for your continued support.
