From Father Raining

Noted preacher John Claypool tells about a thunderstorm that swept through southern Kentucky at the farm where his forebears had lived for six generations. In the orchard, the wind blew over an old pear tree that had been there as long as anybody could remember. Claypool's grandfather was saddened to lose the tree on which he had climbed as a boy and whose fruit he had eaten all his life.

A neighbour came by and said, "Doc, I'm really sorry to see your pear tree blown down."

"I'm sorry too," said his grandfather. "It was a real part of my past."

"What are you going to do?" the neighbour asked.

His grandfather paused for a moment and then said, "I'm going to pick the fruit and burn what's left."

"That is the wise way to deal with many things in our past," says John Claypool. "We need to learn their lessons, enjoy their pleasures, and then go on with the present and the future."

"No one who puts a hand to the plow while looking back is fit for the kingdom of God."

First Reading: Elisha has to leave those he loves to become a prophet.

What have I to leave behind lately to follow Christ?

Second Reading: Paul claims that freedom is service to others in love.

How has my service to others made me more free?

Gospel: Jesus says that he has nowhere to rest.

How might I invite Jesus to come and rest in me?

Moments of Mercy

Souls perish in spite of My bitter Passion. I am giving them the last hope of salvation; that is, the Feast of My Mercy. If they will not adore My mercy, they will perish for all eternity. (Diary 965)

Prayer for Vocations

Jesus knew that when we are committed to whatever we are doing no obstacle can prevent us from reaching our goal. So Jesus could say: "If you will not take up your cross and come after me you are not worthy of me."

Altar Servers are returning

After a prolonged absence due to COVID, we are deeply pleased to announce that the children of our parish will be again faithfully serving at our Masses starting next weekend. We extend a sincere thank you especially to their families for supporting these children and look forward to a long and fulfilling journey in their Ministry. At the 9:30am Mass this weekend, our Bishop installed and welcomed 15 children to the Ministry. All up there are over 30 children in this Ministry and as a parish we are humbled by their presence. Please continue to pray for these children and also the many others in our various Ministries that we continue to be blessed with their support and efforts.

Presentation of Gifts (Offertory Procession) is returning next weekend

The Presentation of Gifts was removed because of risks associated with COVID. We are pleased to announce that this aspect of the Liturgy will be returning for all our weekend Masses commencing next weekend. We are now seeking volunteers to take up the gifts of water, wine and bread for each Mass. To ensure that we have people at each Mass to assist with this important task, a register will be available at the front of the Church, to record your name for any of the upcoming Masses you intend to assist. There was previously a three monthly printed roster for this, however this will no longer be the case and everyone is invited to participate by writing down their names in advance. The collection plates continue to be taken to the Sacristy and will not be part of the Presentation of Gifts.

So what is the Presentation of Gifts?

The Offertory Procession or Procession of Gifts as it is more recently known, fundamentally refers to the action of Christ giving himself to the Father in the sacrifice of the cross. We are joined to Christ's self-offering when, as part of the Church (the body of Christ), we offer the consecrated bread and wine (Christ) to the Father. In the early Church, the people brought bread and wine to the church and 'offered' them to the priest for the celebration of the eucharist. They brought other gifts of food or money that they 'offered' to help the work of the Church. It was a concrete way for them to participate in the real offering of the Mass described above. And so the terminology became confused and people became confused about what they were doing at this particular time. The procession with the gifts by members of the assembly is a powerful expression of the assembly's participation in the eucharistic offering. But the real offering does not take place at this time of preparation. It is a procession of gifts. Having one vessel for each element (water, wine, bread) symbolises the unity of the one bread and one cup. Including offerings for the poor and the Church is of ancient origin and deep significance.
