Invitation to light our Advent Wreath candles

As part of our tradition leading up to Christmas, an Advent wreath is placed on the sanctuary, and at the beginning of each Mass, these candles are lit by members of our congregation. The wreath is typically made of a circle of evergreen branches laid flat to symbolise eternal life and is surrounded by four candles, each one representing the four Sundays of Advent. In the centre is a fifth candle, the Christ Candle, which is lit Christmas Day. The candles remind us Jesus Christ came to conquer the darkness of sin and lead us into the light of his glorious kingdom. If you would like to light an Advent candle, record your name on the sheet as you enter the church.

Advent and Christmas - same or different?

Christmas (liturgical not societal!) season is December 25th until January 6th (Epiphany), and Advent is the season of preparation for Christmas, not the celebration of it. Advent is included with Christmas similar to the way Lent is with Easter. It is important, in terms of the purpose of Christian Holy Days as teaching tools of the Faith, that Advent and Christmas be different, to emphasise expectation and longing, a preparation for celebration. Without that, it is one long celebration without any context for celebration, and with little contact with the reality of life that gave birth to the season. This also extends to the music and why Christmas hymns aren't played during Advent.

Something just for the children for Advent

It is important for children to get a better understanding of what Advent represents and especially in relation to Christmas. There is an online resource used by our Catechists who teach Special Religious Education which is easy to follow and also contains a number of activities (for children of all ages!). ## Advent and the New Liturgical Year in the Catholic Church

The New Liturgical Year in the Catholic Church begins with the season of Advent. The word 'advent' comes from the Latin word adventus, meaning 'coming'. The Catechism of the Catholic Church stresses the two-fold meaning of this coming: When the Church celebrates the liturgy of Advent each year, she makes present this ancient expectancy of the Messiah, for by sharing in the long preparation for the Saviour's first coming, the faithful renew their ardent desire for His second coming (CCC 524).

The liturgical season of Advent marks the time of our spiritual preparation before Christmas, when we celebrate the fulfillment of our longing for the Savior with the birth of Jesus Christ. The season of Advent lasts about four weeks, beginning four Sundays before Christmas and ending on Christmas Eve. The Church's Christmas season begins on Christmas Eve and lasts for twelve days. Hence, Advent is a season of anticipation that leads up to Christmas.

During this time, we observe a season of prayer and reflection—followed by anticipation, hope, joy.

This new liturgical year also marks the transition from one lectionary cycle (A, B, or C) to the next. This three-year cycle, a result of the Second Vatican Council, should help us become more familiar with the Sacred Scriptures. In this new liturgical year of cycle A, the Gospel readings will mainly be from the Gospel of Matthew. With Year B being Mark and Year C being Luke, the Gospel of John is read during the Easter season. Every Sunday's Gospel, there will be a significant theme which may help us in our reflections and in spiritually preparing ourselves for the Christmas celebration.

In this First Sunday of Advent, we are reminded that we need to be spiritually awake and be ready for the coming of Jesus in our lives.

First week of Advent: Hope

It is only fitting that the first candle on the Advent wreath represents Hope. The first Sunday not only leads us to anticipate the birth of Christ but celebrate the beginning of a new liturgical season as well. The first candle is purple, the primary colour of Advent and a colour symbolising royalty. It is sometimes called the "Prophecy Candle" in remembrance of the prophets, especially Isaiah, who foretold the birth of Christ. It represents the expectation felt in anticipation of the coming Messiah. It harkens us back to Isaiah's foretelling of the birth of Christ and all of the promises God gave us in the Old Testament that would be fulfilled by the birth of Jesus.

Why the Gloria is omitted during the season of Advent

Advent is a time of solemn preparation for Christmas, and part of that preparation includes penance. One of the ways that the Church marks this penitential character to the season is the omission of the Gloria at Sunday Mass. This is meant to remind us that we are not quite ready to celebrate the Christ's arrival just yet, but need to strive to stay vigilant and awake for his coming.
